DIED IN TEXAS .- The Rev. F. A. Mood, D. D., formerly of this city, but for the past sixteen years a resident of Texas, died at Waco, Texas, Dr. Mood stood high in the ranks of the clergy of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, and was a delegate to the Wesleyan Ecumenical Council in London some years ago, visiting his native city for the last time on his return from that important mission,-News and Cour-

All that we ask of subscribers who are in arrears, and who are only now finding out that they do not want the HER-ALD and News longer, is, that they will remit us the amount of their dues at the same time they request us to discontinue sending it to them. This is but fair, don't you really think so? In other words, how does it look to take the paper a whole year and simply say when asked to settle-stop my paper!
